- (6) The relevant tax authority may request additional information from an applicant.

- (7) Where necessary, the relevant tax authority shall provide an applicant with a reasonable opportunity to make representations or provide clarifications.
- (8) An applicant may withdraw an application at any time before a ruling is issued.
- 74. The relevant tax authority may reject an application for an advance ruling where it requires the rendering of an opinion, conclusion or determination regarding —
- (a) the application or interpretation of the laws of a foreign country;
 - (b) an issue already before a court or tribunal of competent jurisdiction;
 - (c) the interpretation of the Constitution of the Federal Republic of Nigeria;
 - (d) an issue that is academic, hypothetical, frivolous or vexatious; and
 - (e) a ruling that will interfere substantially with an ongoing audit, investigation or other proceeding involving the applicant or persons connected to the applicant.
- 75. (1) The effect of the ruling is limited to the applicant and the transaction in relation to which the ruling is given.
- (2) The ruling is rendered on a set of facts before the relevant tax authority and cannot be of general application.
- (3) An advance ruling is void where —
- (a) the issue or transaction as described in the ruling is materially different from the issue or transaction actually carried out;
 - (b) there is fraud, misrepresentation or non-disclosure of a material fact; or
 - (c) an assumption made or condition imposed by the relevant tax authority is not satisfied or carried out by the taxpayer.
- (4) Notwithstanding any provision to the contrary contained in a tax law, an advance ruling ceases to be effective where —
- (a) a provision of the tax law that was the subject of the advance ruling is repealed or amended in a manner that materially affects the advance ruling in which case the advance ruling will cease to be effective from the date that the repeal or amendment is effective; or
 - (b) a court overturns or modifies an interpretation of the tax law on which the advance ruling is based, in such case, the advance ruling shall cease to be effective from the date of the judgement unless such decision is overturned.
- 76. (1) The relevant tax authority may withdraw or modify an advance ruling at any time and retrospectively if the ruling was fraudulently obtained.
